

10 Realities of Beer & Bible

- 1) Pastor or church treasury buys the first round.
- 2) A Bible must be present on the table. (Use when necessary)
- 3) Noisy bars are better than quiet bars for lively conversation.
- 4) Sit in a fairly centralized position with at least two tables together.
- 5) Make friends. Teach them of Christ.
- 6) Raise a toast to Jesus and welcome him to the table with you all.
- 7) Have something to teach. (Sola Gracia, Sola Fide, Sola Scriptura)
- 8) Confess your sins together and then be forgiven together.
- 9) Be non-anxious & grace-completed people.
- 10) Sin Boldy trusting fully in God'.

It is better to think of church in the ale-house than to think of the ale-house in church. -- Martin Luther (1483-1546)

I am sitting here, drinking my good Wittenburg Beer and the Kingdom of God comes all by itself. -- Martin Luther (1483-1546)
