LUTHERAN CHURCH

WORSHIP WITH HOLY COMMUNION – JULY 5, 2026 RUTH MEETS BOAZ

WELCOME & GREETING

CALL TO WORSHIP

Here in this place, there are no foreigners, for all are welcome in God's house.

Here in this worship, there is only acceptance, for love is the language of faith.

Here in our lives, there are no divisions, for God dwells in each of us.

Come, let us worship in unity and love. Amen.

CONFESSION

With faith in a loving God, we confess our sins before God and one another.

Pause for silence and reflection.

God of kindness and compassion, we are not always quick to claim you as our God. We fail to care for each other with the compassion you have shown us. Forgive our thoughts, words, and actions, and all that we have failed to do or say. Cleanse us from the inside out and make us new. Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Our God is faithful even when we are not. Today we are forgiven. Today we are cleansed of our sins and made into new beings. Today we follow the Lord, whose compassion never fails. Receive newness of life, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of compassion, your love is spread when members of the community come together. Show us how to make ourselves available for the needs of others, and to receive the gracious gifts of others, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING: RUTH 2:1-23

Lector: Now Naomi had a kinsman on her husband's side, a prominent rich man, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz. And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain, behind someone in whose sight I may find favor. She said to her, Go, my daughter. So she went. She came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. As it happened, she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem. He said to the reapers, Pastor: The Lord be with you. They answered, The Lord bless you. Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, To whom does this young woman belong? The servant who was in charge of the reapers answered, She is the Moabite who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab. She said, "Please, let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers." So she came, and she has been on her feet from early this morning until now, without resting even for a moment.

Lector: Then Boaz said to Ruth, now listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women. Keep your eyes on the field that is being reaped, and follow behind them. I have ordered the young men not to bother you. If you get thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn.

Pastor: Then she fell prostrate, with her face to the ground, and said to him, why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner? But Boaz answered her, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before. May the Lord reward you for your deeds, and may you have a full reward from the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!

Lector: Then she said, may I continue to find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your servant, even though I am not one of your servants. At mealtime Boaz said to her, come here, and eat some of this bread, and dip your morsel in the sour wine. So she sat beside the reapers, and he heaped up for her some parched grain. She ate until she was satisfied, and she had some left over. When she got up to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, Pastor: Let her glean even among the standing sheaves, and do not reproach her. You must also pull out some handfuls for her from the bundles, and leave them for her to glean, and do not rebuke her. So she gleaned in the field until evening.

Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

She picked it up and came into the town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned. Then she took out and gave her what was left over after she herself had been satisfied. Her mother-in-law said to her,

Lector: Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you. So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, the name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz. Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, blessed be he by the Lord, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead! Naomi also said to her, the man is a relative of ours, one of our nearest kin. Then Ruth the Moabite said, He even said to me, "Stay close by my servants, until they have finished all my harvest." Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, it is better, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, otherwise you might be bothered in another field.

Pastor: So she stayed close to the young women of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Word of God. Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 34:1-8

- ¹ I will bless the Lord at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
- ² My soul makes its boast in the Lord;
let the humble hear and be glad.
- ³ O magnify the Lord with me,
and let us exalt his name together.
- ⁴ I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵ Look to him, and be radiant,
so your faces shall never be ashamed.
- ⁶ This poor soul cried and was heard by the Lord and was saved from every trouble.
- ⁷ The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him and delivers them.
- ⁸ O taste and see that the Lord is good;
happy are those who take refuge in him.

HOLY GOSPEL: LUKE 6:36-38

³⁶ Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. ³⁷ "Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven;³⁸ give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap, for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

This is the Gospel of our Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

WE ARE CALLED Irregular

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

Eternal God, you call us to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with courage, not knowing where we go but only that your hand is leading us, and your love supporting us. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL SHARING

WE ARE NOT ALONE CREED

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God:

Who has created and is creating.

Who has come in Jesus, the word made flesh, to reconcile and make new,

Who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God. We are called to be the Church:

To celebrate God's presence; to live with respect in Creation;

to love and serve others; to seek justice and resist evil,

to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Confident that God acts on our behalf, we pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

God of kinship, by working together, Ruth, Naomi, and Boaz protected one another, and they participated in the incarnation of your son, Jesus. Give us hearts that desire cooperation and collaboration, so that others may be loved, supported, and protected. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Love and protect all the amazing things in your great creation, Lord, and show us how to participate in the tender stewardship of all that you have made. Grant relief from the heat which threatens the lives of your people and fill us with wisdom and the desire to restore the damage we've done to the Creation you've entrusted to us. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Protect those who sacrifice to preserve lives and property from the wildfires currently burning across the US and Canada. Bring comfort and strength to the families of the fire fighters whose lives have recently been lost. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Show the leaders of this world how to govern in ways that encourage empowerment, cooperation, and community, so that all may be lifted up in your kingdom. We pray for the world, and especially those engaged in war: the United States, Israel, Iran, Ukraine, Russia, and all others known to you. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Pour your healing rain upon all who are in need, who suffer from illness, grief, isolation, disempowerment, and abuse. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Knit this world together into one community, united in your name, doing the works of your hands, and the will of your heart. We pray especially for George and Jessika Crawford, Carl Chaney, Chris Newkirk, Devon Warren, Pastor Phil, Matt Melton, Rick and Kelly, Terry Schreier, Jim and Sally, Dave, Dorothy, Clover, and all those named on our Prayer Chain. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of provision, we pray for strength for all those who provide care for their loved ones, especially James and Chris Elkins, and Kirk, Clare, and Gwen Fallon. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of wholeness, we pray for the work of the Joshua School. May our relationship with them reflect your love and care for those with special needs. We pray that all those on the Autism Spectrum, especially those in our faith family, might find fulfillment, joy, and love. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

With grateful praise we thank you for the saints who have gone before us, teaching us how to live with mercy, kindness, and compassion. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

With gratitude for your faithfulness, we pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ, our savior and Lord. Amen.

SHARING OF THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

And also with you.

(Please share a sign of God's love and peace with each other.)

OFFERING/OFFERING PRAYER

Gracious God, our hearts overflow with thanksgiving at your mercy, and we long to show this gratitude in our lives. May generosity of spirit, of heart, and of wealth be our first step toward imitating you, whom we love, O Lord. Amen.

CELEBRATING COMMUNITY: SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The LORD be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the LORD.

Let us give thanks to the LORD our GOD.

It is right to give GOD thanks and praise.

God, who led Israel with a pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night, you lead us in ways of righteousness. You have taught us that wandering does not mean that we are lost. You have taught us that the journey is just as important as the destination. We give thanks that you call us your people.

Jesus, giver of the peace that surpasses all understanding, your peace has settled on this gathering today. We have come because you first came to us. We gather to hear your word just as the disciples gathered in Jerusalem. We have both heard your word of eternal life and your word that sends us out. We give thanks that you trust us with your name.

Holy Spirit, who prays on our behalf when we have no words, you are both our counsel and our might. You convict us with truth when we forget your word. You lead us with wisdom when we do not know where to go. You comfort us when we feel we are without hope. We give thanks that you are in us and around us and ever-present with us.

Now, as people gathered in your name, we pray that you would make your presence known to us. Holy Spirit, as you have done before, breathe your breath of life through this place making this simple loaf and cup communion with you. May God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit abide with us as we share this meal.

Bind us to you and to one another as we gather at Christ's table, remembering that on the night in which he gave himself up for the world, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying "Take and eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this in remembrance of me."

Together, we remember that it is in the breaking that we become whole; that in losing our lives we find life; and that in serving we are served; and so we pray: Come, holy Spirit, come. Bless this bread and bless this fruit of the vine. Bless all of us in our eating and drinking, that our eyes might be opened, that we might recognize the risen Christ in our midst, and indeed, in one another. Come, Holy Spirit, come. Amen.

All is forgiven. Absolutely nothing stands between us and our Lord's irresistible invitation to dinner. Come, bringing nothing but open hands and hearts. We get to start again. Hallelujah! Amen.

By eating this bread and drinking this wine we become one in hope...the hope that is ours in the Prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us;
 and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

SHARING THE MEAL

This is the body of Christ, broken for you.
 This is the blood of Christ, shed for you.

Amen.

It is our Lord's Table – a meal prepared for all – prepared in love. Please come. All who long for the Good News in Jesus Christ are truly welcome at this table. As Jesus called children to be close to him, we, likewise, extend this invitation to all children. Should you not feel comfortable receiving the Sacrament, please come forward indicating that you wish to receive a blessing by folding your arms over your chest.

COMMUNION OUTSIDE OF WORSHIP

Arrangements can be made to bring communion to you at a time convenient for you.
